

Visiting Assistant Professor of Psychology

The Department of Psychology at Knox College invites applications for a visiting assistant professor position beginning Fall 2025. The position is a one-year appointment beginning September 1, 2025 with a teaching load of six courses (2 courses per each of three 10-week terms).

Teaching responsibilities will include introduction to psychology, introduction to statistics, a lower level course in one of the main subfields in psychology (e.g., social, developmental, personality, perception) and may include an intermediate level applied course, an upper level course in the candidate's area of expertise, and supervision of undergraduate research projects.

Knox College is an independent, selective liberal arts institution with a strong commitment to undergraduate teaching. Candidates should have a sincere interest in quality undergraduate teaching at an institution that values diversity and close interactions with students. We are particularly interested in creative, energetic teachers of undergraduate students who can contribute to Knox College's considerable diversity and reflect that diversity in their teaching, mentoring, and research. Experience working with diverse populations of students and a commitment to teach successfully in a multicultural environment are expected.

Knox College provides a competitive salary and a strong benefit package including health, dental, vision and life insurance for full-time employees. Additional information can be found on our Human Resources webpage at <https://www.knox.edu/offices/human-resources/employee-benefits-and-forms>.

Qualifications:

- Ph.D. in psychology preferred at the time of the appointment, but exceptional ABD candidates will also be considered.

To apply, candidates should submit:

1. A letter of application that addresses the qualifications listed above
2. A curriculum vitae
3. Names and contact information of three confidential references

Submission via Interfolio: <http://apply.interfolio.com/165063>

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Questions may be addressed to psychologysearch@knox.edu.

Knox Notice of Non-Discrimination

In keeping with its commitment to equal rights since it was founded in 1837, Knox College particularly welcomes applications from members of underrepresented groups. Knox College does not discriminate on the basis of sex, pregnancy, gender identity or expression, race, color, creed, national or ethnic origin, religion or religious affiliation, sexual orientation or preference, age, marital or family status, disability, veteran status, or other status protected by applicable federal, state, or local law in admission, financial aid, employment, athletics, or any other aspect of its educational programs or activities. In addition, Knox College is prohibited by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and its accompanying regulations from so discriminating on the basis of sex.

The College official responsible for coordinating compliance with this Notice of Non-Discrimination is the Director of Title IX and Civil Rights Compliance. Any inquiries regarding Title IX or the College's policies that prohibit discrimination and harassment should be directed to the Director of Title IX and Civil Rights Compliance identified below. The coordinator will be available to meet with or talk to students, staff, and faculty regarding issues relating to this Notice of Non-Discrimination and the College's policies and procedures.
