International Student Transfer In Form

Knox College CHI214F01074000

To Student: If you are coming to Knox College from another college in the U.S. without leaving the country, Knox College will use the information on this form to issue you a Knox form I-20. If you will be travelling outside the U.S., you will need a Knox form I-20 to return to the U.S. Please complete Section A of this form and request that the international student advisor at the institution you are presently attending or most recently attended complete Section B.

Please note that Knox College will be able to issue your new SEVIS I-20 once we receive complete financial documents, the completed transfer report has been submitted, and after your previous school's SEVIS "release date" has been reached.

Upon receiving your I-20 please note the program start date listed on the document. Please arrive on campus for orientation no later than the program start date.
