HOW DO OUR LIVING SPACES
AFFECT THOUGHTS ABOUT SEX?

SEXUAL GEOGRAPHY: HOW PHYSICAL SPACE INTERSECTS WITH SEX

- WHAT IMPLICATIONS ABOUT SEX
DOES A SPACE CREATE?
- DOES THE SPACE WHERE WE MEET
SOMEONE AFFECT HOW WE THINK ABOUT THEM?
- WHO HAS POWER IN DIFFERENT SPACES?

In a dorm room, there aren't many seating options other than a bed, which can have sexual connotations.

People might want to spend time in a frat house or houses off-campus because they have more space and party options.

This gives people who live in these alternative spaces power over those who are visiting.

Consent isn't implied from going into someone's room, sitting on someone's bed, or agreeing to stay overnight.

REMEMBER TO ALWAYS ASK FOR CONSENT!
